WORCESTER (Mass.) TELEGRAM

OCT 2 4 1300

Circ.: m. Approved For Release 2000/06/30 : CIA-RDP7 FOIAb3b

101,427

Other Edit Front Page

Dgr6: OC7 24 1960

City Native Named Head Of Air Base

COL. GEORGE McCAFFERTY New Commander

A Worcester native has been 464th Air Base Group.

Col. George O. McCafferty, 43,

Pope last summer after com-ond Air Rescue Group in Okinawa. manding Evreux-Fauville Air He served in France from 1957 Base, France. For the last three until last summer. months he has been a special as- He is married to the former sistant to the 464th Troop Carrier Rita Power of Worcester. They Wing commander, His base serves have two sons and three daugh a troop carrier wing of the Ninth Air Force.

He is a 1940 graduate of Holy Cross and was commissioned an Air Force officer and pilot in February 1941. He served three years as a flying instructor and then after promotion to major, was commander of the 379th Bomber Squadron, 93rd Bomber Group in England.

Col. McCafferty took part in 19

A Worcester native has been raids over Germany before his named commander of Pope Air B-24 was shot down in an attack Force Base, N.C., and the base's on Magdeburg in September 1944. He was a prisoner of war until April 1945.

succeeds Col. John A. Cosgrove, who held the two positions since Ma 1959.

Cor. McCafferty was assigned to Cor. McCafferty was assigned to Leet summer after com-After the war he attended the

CPYRGHT